

Algorithms and Flowcharts

Think of something that you do every day or nearly every day (that we did not mention in class). Try to choose something that has a decision/conditional somewhere along the way. Complete the following:

1. Write an algorithm representing it.
2. Draw a flowchart which represents it.

